

Report form - new masters student at Department of Chemistry

Mandatory fields are marked with a star

Your answers will be used by the study administration to get an overview of your situation as a master's student with regard to study progression, finding a supervisor and master's thesis and well-being. Anonymised results will also be used in the work to improve the study programme. We will not share the answers with the tutor(s) or others without your permission.

Your name (first name and surname)?

Have you taken your bachelor`s degree at the Department of Chemistry, University of Oslo?
You have to select at least one option.

Yes

No, I did my bachelor's degree at another institution

What made you want to do a master`s?

You have to select at least one option.

I want to learn more chemistry

I think it is difficult to get a job without a master's degree

Why did you choose the master`s program in chemistry at the University of Oslo?

How has the start of studies been?

Did you participate in the master's week in week 33? Have you got the information you need?

You have to select at least one option.

Good, I got the information I need

Good, but I still have many questions regarding the studies

Bad, I haven't got the information I need

If you haven't got the help or the information you need, can you elaborate on what?

Have you found your main supervisor and master's project?

You have to select at least one option.

Yes

No

If no, do you want help to get in touch with possible supervisors and possible projects? Please describe what you would like help with?

How do you experience the teaching at master's level compared to what you are used to from your bachelor's degree?

Feel free to comment on scope, academic level and/or teaching methods

Do you want to participate in a semester talk?

The program coordinator/study consultant offers all master's students a semester talk each semester. Here you have the opportunity to ask questions, and talk about any challenges or anything else regarding your studies. The content of the conversation will not be shared with anyone, unless you yourself want it.

You have to select at least one option.

Yes, I want to participate in the semester interview

No, I do not need a semester interview this semester